

GOVERNOR CHARLIE CRIST PRESENTS FLORIDA ... BEYOND THE BLUE HORIZON

BY ALAN S. MALTZ TO DIGNITARIES AROUND THE WORLD

Left: Maxim Kalinin, Executive Committee Chairman, American Chamber of Commerce at St. Petersburg, Russia. Middle: Israel Foreign Minister Tzipi Livini, also pictured with Florida Senator Nan Rich (far left) and Congresswoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen. (far right) Right: Anne Lauvergeon, CEO of AREVA, a world leader in nuclear power. All photos by State Photographer Eric Tournay, courtesy of Florida Governor's Office

Tallahassee, Fla. – What better way to represent your state than to give the gift that says it all! Florida Governor Charlie Crist has been presenting the award-winning book of fine art photography, Florida ...Beyond the Blue Horizon by Alan S. Maltz, to dignitaries from around the world since he was elected in 2007.

Maltz's large-format book featuring the natural and manmade wonders of the Sunshine State has been presented by the Governor to top leaders, foreign ministers and CEOs in many countries, including the United Kingdom, France, Russia, Israel and Spain.

Florida ... Beyond the Blue Horizon has received numerous awards, including “Best Florida Book for Adults” and “Best Interior Design” by the Florida Publishers Association. The book was selected as the official welcome gift of Super Bowl XLI and presented to the 32 NFL team owners and the NFL Commissioner.

U. K. Foreign Secretary
David Miliband

Mikhail Oseevsky,
Vice-Governor of
St. Petersburg,
Russia.