

Dear Friends at the Alan S. Maltz Gallery,

I just wanted to thank you for your generosity with the prints you sent me. If you recall, I had requested "Veil of Twilight" because it was in the Hospice House where my grandmother had recently passed away. I ordered it for my father in hopes of giving him a peaceful, gentle reminder that his mother had passed peacefully and painlessly. He had been drawn to the picture in her short stay there, I believe because it was so serene and transported him to another place, even for just a moment.

I gave it to him on Christmas Eve and he immediately knew where it had come from. He said, "I know who I will think of when I look at this." That was my goal: to give him a beautiful piece of artwork as well as a gentle reminder of his mother. He was incredibly touched by this act. So, I went on to tell him the story of how I acquired it and he also would like to extend his thanks.

Again, thank you for all that you did for our family in this difficult time. I truly believe in the therapy that art and music can bring into a life. Attached you will find a picture of him with the artwork.

Sincerely,
Tracey Pinto
